Ah! is there any one living,
The State Republican Con­ven­tion met yesterday and the nominations are now made for the state ticket. Let us hope that prudence and wisdom, have guided the selection of the Convention. That the Hon. O. H. Dockery of Richmond county has been chosen as a candidate for the governorship is a matter of congratulation. His long experience in the past. For the other offices the party will enter the contest, with a zeal and determination to succeed, which has not characterized its efforts for many years in the past. For the second place on the ticket there have been some gentlemen prominently suggested, as available timber out of which to make a second ticket. As a section follows: Greene, Kears, Pritchard and Lockey. Mr. Lockey is an Eastern man, and would hardly be selected with Dockery, also from the same section. The other gentlemen are all equally capable of the position of Watauga has been the choice of the Extemists, but we acknowledge with appreciation the sincerity worth of the opponents. We have seen Swart and Pritchard meet in debate some of the most accomplished Democrat speakers in the State, at the close of which, the enemy had no flesh in their talons or blood on their swords. We do not wish to adopt this occasion to give an adequate sketch of the work of the Convention.

Each political party of Watauga had a Convention arranged, determined if possible to play a winning hand. The Democrats claim that with the ticket two years ago, the party was to some extent defeated, and defeat was the consequence. This year they will try the people of Watauga for an reinstatement of that confidence, which was at the last election withdrawn, and to make use more certain of the new set of candidates will be placed in the field. We believe that the Democratic candidates for the State offices were as well calculated in every particular to poll the full party strength as any that could have been selected, and that the result will be a most encouraging outcome to every Republican in the county. With harmony and concord of action, Watauga is under the same party which carried it two years ago, and to secure this result let every Republican participate in the work to extend the circulation of the Enterprise. The Democratic party will begin the publication of a paper in Boone, and we shall also have a brother paper in the District of Columbia. The discussion over the few marks from one friend of W. S. Farthing the prospects of the Democratic ticket for the Senate. Unlike those who had just preceded him, he chose not to enter the great field of political discussion so early in the campaign, but gave his allegiance to what had been said by the Republican party. The work of this Convention and the speeches made are fairly indicative of the general condition of the party throughout the entire campaign. The headlines of Watauga Democrat have heretofore been favorable to our internal revenue laws, against the internal revenue laws, and against the suppression of the Blair bill. With a President of your own selection, and a majority in both houses of the National Legislature, nothing has been done tending to relieve the people of the burdens of which they can justly claim the possession of those important adjuncts. Never were the prospects for the complete triumph of the Republican party brighter both nationally and now. Republicans of Watauga, throw your support, for the Democrats are at work with a view to the passing and enactment of laws which will work for the benefit of the public. The Democrats have been an enjoyable one. --- We are pleased to notice the appearance of the name of Mrs. C. C. Bowen in Boone.

--- The new church at Hur­son's on Cove Creek will soon be completed.

--- The appearance of Rev. Mr. Smith, who has for some time been attending the school, is very much appreciated by the entire as­semblage. On this occasion the order was not so well understood, but it must have been clearly indicated by the noises of some of the young gentle­men. They seem to have had some un­favorable failures on the part of the students; we give the above as a palliation therefor. We remember another 50 years ago the word "distracted" was comparatively unknown—it is as common now as any word in the English lan­guage, yet this word covers the general mis­takes to the word used by our forefathers in time past. So it is with "academic," as a good woman, and leaves a impression upon the young of the mind. We have in our County a number of Democratic women who are going to vote with the young men, interested in the electoral campaign.

--- The Prohibition party will be a success if we consider the work they have done, and the readiness with which they gave their time to work for it in open Senate. It resulted in this settlement.
